

Explore and celebrate
your Highlands in 2014!

Dèan rannsachadh is moladh air do Ghàidhealtachd-sa ann an 2014!

Is your heart in the Highlands?

Do the Highlands feel like “home” to you?

My heart's in the Highlands is a special Homecoming 2014 project looking at what makes the Highlands special – to the people who live here, and to people around the world.

Whether you live in the Highlands and Moray, have family roots in the area, or just love coming here, don't miss this chance to find out about how the past has shaped life here today. Music, songs, stories, traditions, sport, crafts, emigration and return... explore their history and discover why they are still important now.

My heart's in the Highlands - exploring and celebrating the heritage of the Highlands and Moray during Homecoming 2014.

Tha mo chridhe sa Ghàidhealtachd - a' moladh is a' rannsachadh dualchas na Gàidhealtachd is Mhoireibh rè Tilleadh Dhachaigh 2014.

Be part of it! Download our free app.
Celebrate Highland Homecoming 2014.

See overleaf for what's in store.

Explore and celebrate your Highlands in 2014!

Dèan rannsachadh is moladh air do Ghàidhealtachd-sa ann an 2014!

Enjoy over 80 special Homecoming events in the Highlands and Moray this year, including:

Image courtesy of Inverness Museum and Art Gallery

Image courtesy of National Trust for Scotland, Culloden

- Needed on a Journey – a new exhibition touring the Highlands, exploring what those who left the Highlands took with them. Lots of accompanying activities and workshops.
- How to find your ancestors – family tree workshops around the Highlands.
- Culloden Homecoming – kids' activities, living history, traditional music... an event for the whole family. Culloden Battlefield and Visitor Centre, 6th and 7th September 2014.
- Special local Homecoming events at museums and heritage sites across the Highlands and Moray.
- My heart's in the Highlands "selfie" sessions - a chance to record and upload your thoughts on what the Highlands mean to you.

Find out more on www.hearhighland.org, like us on Facebook , follow us on Twitter @hearhighland - and don't miss our iphone app!

